Background of Conference

The 20th China Ferro-alloys International Conference supported by Jinzhou Municipal People's Government, hosted by China Chamber of Commerce of Metals Minerals & Chemicals Importers & Exporters (CCCMC) & Ferro-Alloys.com, will be held on 04 March to 06 March, 2024 in Jinzhou City, Liaoning Province, China.

What is the conference?

China Ferroalloys International Conference is an annual event since 2004, hosted by Ferro-Alloys.com (FACOM)

And CCCMC(China Chamber of Commerce of Metals, Minerals and Chemicals Importer & Exporter)

China, the global ferroalloy powerhouse, is in the spotlight. Its manganese, silicon and chromium industries are now fueling the thriving new energy battery sector. Breakthroughs in technology and quality are transforming the landscape. Meanwhile, molybdenum, tungsten, niobium, vanadium, Titanium and other alloys maintain strong positions globally. While China reduces steel production, it champions the new energy frontier and advanced materials.

Jinzhou is the one of the important sources of ferro molybdenum and ferrotitanium in China, and has made special contributions to Moly Oxide, Ferro Moly, Titanium De-oxide, Ferro Titanium and titanium Sponge. Jinzhou City is not only the largest suppliers and buyers of Moly products and titanium products currently in China, but also Vanadium and Zirconium Noble alloys are rich in Jinzhou.
